Pride Weekend 2026: June 26 – 28

Pride Shabbat and Dinner, June 26

Kick off Pride weekend with Pride Shabbat, an uplifting Friday night experience led by LGBTQIA+ leaders in our community. This spirited Kabbalat Shabbat service is all about embracing joy – both that of Shabbat and Pride! Everyone is welcome, but registration is required. After the service, join us for a Shabbat dinner offered on a sliding scale with hardship pricing available. Register on the JCC Denver website: <https://www.jccdenver.org/programs/lgbtqia/pride/>

Kabbalat Shabbat Service 6:00 – 7:00 pm
Shabbat Dinner 7:00 – 8:30 pm

Pride March and PrideFest, June 28

Get your walking shoes and rainbow gear ready, and march with the Jewish Community at Denver’s Pride Parade! This is your chance to spread love, acceptance, and equality while showing up proudly as a Jewish community in support of our LGBTQIA+ community. Spots are limited to 100 marchers – first come, first served, so sign up fast! Oh, and did we mention? All marchers get a free t-shirt! Then, stay for PrideFest, hosted by The Center on Colfax, which brings together hundreds of exhibitors, food vendors, three stages of live entertainment, a family area, a Youth Area, and more! Find us at the Jewish Community Booth in the Family Area of PrideFest, where we will be making Pride-themed beaded bracelets, schmoozing, and sharing resources.

Parade: 8:00 – 11:30 am
Festival: 10:00 am – 6:00 pm.

Register on the JCC Denver website. Contact Daniel Siegel for any questions or interest in volunteering: dsiegel@jccdenver.org

We hope to see you at the JCC Denver soon!
